

Garcia deal may peril US aid; Noy wants it undone

By Niko Dixon

and Christine O. Averardo

THE ELRA bargain agreement between state prosecutors and retired Maj. Gen. Carlos Garcia that resulted in his release via amnesty despite a plunder charge against him may imperil US military aid to the Philippines, a military analyst said yesterday.

"The United States might see us as not being serious in prosecuting the case... That we did not apply the full measure."

P-Noy defend new peso bills from critics

By Christine O. Averardo

PRESIDENT Aquino and the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (BSP) defended the country's new peso notes, marked by signs for denouncing environmentalists and apparently involving a new postcard species.

The President said he would use a map or GPS (Global Positioning System) and not the new peso bills if he were to search for a place in the Philippines.

Struggling off the criticism, Mr. Aquino said the new peso bills bearing his signature were not a trap or a "cartographer's dream."

Senator granted temporary liberty

By Alvin Papa
and Mike Morales

AFTER MORE than seven years in detention, Sen. Antonio Trillanes IV finally tested freedom last night.

Trillanes walked out of the Camp Crame Custodial Center at around 9:25 p.m.

At odds of 13 hours, the 56-year-old senator was released after the Manila City Regional Trial Court granted his petition for provisional liberty in time for the Christmas season.

The info, who asked not to be identified because he was not authorized to talk to the media, said Trillanes was released to the custody of Senator President Juan Ponce Enrile.

Trillanes was detained in 2003 on charges of staging a coup d'etat against then President Gloria Macapagal Arroyo.

PRESIDENT Aquino yesterday ordered an investigation of Tuesday's fire that hit a private hospital in Taguig City and killed 16 people, most of them staring students about to take licensure examinations.

Acting on Mr. Aquino's order, Interior Secretary Jesse Robredo sacked Chief Insp. Neil Canangnang, the city's fire marshal, to pave the way for the inquiry into whether the registration fee department was negligent.

TELLING THE FILIPINO STORY TO THE WORLD

Editor's Note: For 25 days, we will be telling stories about the Decembers to mark the paper's 25th anniversary on Dec. 19, 2010. Some are little inside stories that are pointing on how we cover unfolding events; some are mark-the-day stories that tell the inside tale of the latest topics; others are turning-point stories that have changed the landscape of business, culture, life or society, since the heart and never let go. But whatever the Decembers will tell you the story.

De Lima to lead witnesses to HK

By Marko Ramos and Christine O. Rosales

JUSTICE SECRETARY Luis de Lima will lead the Philippine delegation to Hong Kong that will take part in the investigation of the Aug. 23 hostage crisis that left eight Hong Kong tourists dead in Manila.

Speaking with reporters yesterday, De Lima said the Philippine delegation will lead the investigation of the Hong Kong government's role in the hostage crisis. "I received the news from the Office of the Executive Secretary that I will be one of the government officials who will be sent to Hong Kong," De Lima said. "But we will have to first discuss it with the public officials involved in the Hong Kong government's role in the crisis," he said.

Ninoy Aquino, FVR get Korea war hero medal

TWO FILIPINO journalists who risked the power of their pen in the defense of democracy in South Korea during the Korean War were among 14 Filipinos recently honored with a special medal presented by the Republic of Korea.

The late film director "Ninoy" S. Aquino Jr. and former House Speaker F. Villanueva were named the "Korean War Hero Medal" in a special ceremony marking the 65th anniversary of the Korean War.

Also honored the Korean War Hero Medal were former President Fely R. Marcos, and former House Speaker Juan P. Lacor. Capt. Claudio S. Jr. Jose Arroyo and Gen. Francisco "Nene" Garcia, and outstanding officers of the United Nations Truce Supervision Commission (UNTSO), Gen. Francisco S. Dela Cruz, Gen. Francisco S. Dela Cruz, and Gen. Francisco S. Dela Cruz.

Ninoy Aquino, then 18 years old, covered the war for the Manila Times (then the leading morning newspaper) while his father, Ninoy Aquino Sr., was in the United States. He was the first Filipino to be named the "Korean War Hero Medal" in a special ceremony marking the 65th anniversary of the Korean War.

FILIPINO veterans, including former President Fely R. Marcos (center-right), are conferred the Korean War Hero Medal for their contributions that helped South Korea in the Korean War.

The first Philippine contingent to the UNCTC, headed by South Korea on Sept. 15, 1955, included 14 Filipinos, including the late Ninoy Aquino Jr.

Last war 1800
The Philippines was the last of the 18 countries to join the UNCTC, on Sept. 15, 1955. The UNCTC was created to monitor the Korean War.

"Together with other UNCTC members, you, the Philippines, saved our country. You have freedom, democracy and peace because of you. Thank you very much," said the Korean War veterans who fought in the Republic of Korea War.

"Your country is truly the most great and most friendly nation around, especially with South Korea in the Korean War. We are proud to be a part of it."

GOV'T WATCH Keeping and Protecting the Filipino Consumer

AN APPEAL TO OUR PEOPLE: LET US ALL WORK TOGETHER IN BUILDING A STRONGER NATION IN 2011

We end the year as a nation optimistic about our future.

Pulse Asia's October 20 - 25 survey shows that 9 out of 10 Filipinos are hopeful about the coming year.

With President Aquino's popularity rating at a strong 79% confidence in the government is high.

GOV'T WATCH appeals to the Government, the Business Sector, and the Filipino citizenry to unite and work together so that in 2011, we may turn our hopes for a better and stronger nation into reality.

We urge the GOVERNMENT to continue its campaign for greater transparency, accountability, and integrity.

A government free of graft and corruption in every sector, level, and department will ensure the highest quality of public service to desperately needed by our people, particularly the poorest of the poor.

We urge the BUSINESS SECTOR to conduct business honestly and ethically.

GOV'T WATCH supports the Makati Business Club (MBC) and European Chamber of Commerce of the Philippines (ECCP)'s "Integrity Initiative" project that will certify "clean" companies to be given priority in being awarded government contracts.

A transparent, fair, and first-rate business environment will encourage more investments from both local and foreign businesses.

We urge the FILIPINO CITIZENRY to cooperate with the government and support its programs.

Our high hopes for the future must fuel our actions.

In 2011, let us become the catalysts that will bring about TRUE and MEANINGFUL CHANGE in our country and as a people.

A very Merry Christmas and a Prosperous New Year to one and all.

We want your feedback.

Eagles tour goes to Asia; no PH date yet

By Patricia Concepcion

DOLBY is in the process of purchasing new seats and so is starting to look for their own major international act that will come to Manila next year when it opens back the clock with local legions.

For some time, there's been a deluge of old acts who are now being replaced by new acts. It's a big market for them—middle-aged executives and professionals who are now able to buy tickets for the whole family.

The only drawback is that some of these acts are not as popular as they used to be.

But the Eagles are a special case. The band was first formed in 1970, but it has remained successful, with worldwide tours after 2007, "Long Road Out of Eden," their last top-of-the-chart and arena tour.

There is the same dilemma that the band is promoting with its ongoing tour.

Next year the tour will be Bangkok (Feb. 22), Singapore (Feb. 25), Taipei (Feb. 26), Osaka (March 1), Manila (March 2), Tokyo (March 3) and Hong Kong (March 10).

"With that schedule," a source inside the band said, "it makes sense if local promoters add a Manila date."

The band actually reached the final five when it was made a stop in Singapore last year. "Gimme Gimme" was played. "Mind you, it wasn't an unplugged set, but a full electric set."

It's not that any promoter is interested in the Eagles.
